The teachers say:

"We love teaching this course because: we are passionate about the texts and characters we study, which all have something to tell us about what it is to be human and which are full of relatable characters and thought provoking ideas. Every year, students get involved with the characters, scenarios and contexts in a way that keeps the texts fresh and it is a joy to see them thinking about challenging concepts and relating them to their own experiences, hopes and fears!"

The students say:

"We enjoy this course because:

'we get to learn about the world'

'we can hear the poets and writer's opinions about the topics of their times'

'even though the texts are not modern they still have characters and ideas in them that we can relate to, like love and hate and friendship'
