What future pathways might be open to me if I study German?

German is a particularly useful language for businesses which specialise in finance, engineering, science, medicine, and manufacturing. Germany is the second most important destination for UK exports, so speaking German is an important skill for all UK businesses and gives you a competitive advantage!

Journalist, Marketing and Sales Manager, Computer Programmer, Lawyer, Pilot, Cabin Crew, Accountant, Banker, Engineer, Human Resources, Diplomat, Teacher, Translator, Interpreter, and Athlete are some of the many jobs that value languages. German speaking employees are sought after and highly paid with German speaking employees earning an average of £35,000 a year.
