Suggested wider reading for older students- year 9 to GCSE and beyond

Non Fiction- Writer's Viewpoints and perspectives (GCSE Language paper 2)

This list mixes autobiography, polemic, travel writing, history, science, social issues, survival stories... some adult language/themes and strong opinions. All great reads.

Opinion articles: students should be in the habit of reading some of these each week. They are free online for The Independent, The Guardian, The Daily Mail, The Huffington Post. Some great op eds from American papers such as The New York Times and The Washington Post can also be accessed for free. Behind a paywall you can find opinion pieces from The Times and The Telegraph.

TED Talks: Not reading (although you can read the transcripts) but great to listen to in order to get an ear in to the debates and ideas of the day.
