The teachers say: “We love teaching this course because:

It's great to see the students go from entry level they start with in Year 7 to be ready to take on the A-Level course. It's a privilege to see them learn to express themselves in another language.

The GCSE course strikes a great balance of using all the skills and the new GCSE course is more student centred.

We love to share our enthusiasm for Hispanic culture with the students.

The students say: “We enjoy this course because:

I love finding out about the different traditions in Spain – especially La Tomatina.

The teachers are enthusiastic and everyone in the class has loves languages so it's a great learning environment.

We absolutely loved the trip to Barcelona!

What future pathways might be open to me if I study Spanish?

Spanish is the second most spoken native language in the world. Learning Spanish helps you to communicate with them and teaches you cultural understanding. Embassies, consulates, publishing houses and multinational companies all value language skills. Athletes, sports stars, film stars and those that support them, all find languages helpful. Teachers, translators, interpreters, journalists, pilots, flight attendants, and diplomats all use languages in their roles. Spanish will help you in whichever job you choose in the future.

Those that are bilingual typically earn 5%-20% more than their counterparts who speak one language.
